The screenshot shows the APIC Attendance Calendar interface. A modal titled "Manage attendance" is open, displaying a table of attendance records. The modal includes a "Your attendance" section with a table that has columns for "Title", "Start", "End", and "Note". The first row in the table shows "Alexander Braatz" from "14 Oct 2026" to "23 Oct 2026" with the note "looking forward to my...". Below the table is a button labeled "+ Add a new attendance". A "Save" button is located at the bottom right of the modal. Two numbered callouts are present: "1" points to the pencil icon in the first row of the table, and "2" points to the "+ Add a new attendance" button.
